(c) what other steps Government propose to take to provide relief to the coffee growers in the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. R. DAS MUNSHI): (a) to (c) It is difficult to assess at this stage the repercussions of the alleged collapse of the International Coffee Agreement.

The suspension of quotas w.e.f. 4-7-89 is not expected to pose any serious problem for disposal of available exportable surplus of coffee as some grades of Indian Coffee are by far the best in the world. The situation would however be watched and steps taken to market our coffee internally as well as abroad.

Mobilisation of funds by income-tax officers through collection of income-tax and corporation tax

3069. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government have directed the Income Tax Officers to mobilise funds and also set a target for collection of income-tax and corporation tax during the coming years;

(b) whether any action plan has been prepared in this regard; and

(c) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI AJIT PANJA): (a) Instructions have been issued to the Chief Commissioners of Income-tax to maximise the revenue collections for the current financial year. For financial year 1989-90, the Budget Estimates for income-tax and Corporation-tax have been placed at Rs. 4245 crores and Rs. 4755 crores respectively.

(b) and (c) The action plan for collection of Income-tax and Corporation-tax during 1989-90 has been prepared and circulated among all the Chief Commissioners of Income-tax in June, 1989. Annual targets have been fixed for each Chief Commissioner's region on the basis of collections made during 1988-89. Monthly targets have also been fixed for better monitoring and control.

Delhi Judicial Service Examination

3070. SHRI SYED SIBTEY RAZI:

SHRI KAILASH PATI MISHRA:

Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Delhi Administration has created a large number of new posts in the Subordinate Judicial Service, Delhi, if so, what is the existing number of vacancies;

(b) whether it is proposed to hold the Delhi Judicial Service Examination in 1989;

(c) whether the Delhi Administration has any objection to relax the age limit for eligibility from 32 to 35 years for the said examination in line with the practice followed in most of the States, as also because no such examination has been held after 1984 and further that it may be difficult to select befitting officers for such a large number of vacancies unless senior and experienced candidates upto the age of 35 years are also permitted to take up the examination; and

(d) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI B. SHANKARANAND): (a) No, Sir. There are, at present, three vacancies.

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) and (d) There is no proposal for relaxing the age limit.
